

1. Which type of patient would not be considered for an intrahospital transfer?

- *a. a patient with an unstable C-spine fracture
- b. a patient with controlled hypertension
- c. a patient who is intubated and ventilated
- d. a pregnant mom with triplets

2. Which of the following would not be allowed in an MRI room?

- a. a pen
- b. a stethoscope
- c. a clipboard
- *d. all of the above

3. Assuming an atmospheric PO₂ of 160 torr at sea level with a barometric pressure of 760 mmHg, which of the following would be the PO₂ at 6000 feet?

- *a. 129 torr
- b. 134 torr
- c. 145 torr
- d. 150 torr

4. The written record that must accompany the patient to the receiving hospital after transport from the referring hospital should include which of the following?

- a. demographic information
- b. vital signs prior to transport
- c. fluids and medications prior to transport
- d. all of the above
- *e. b and c only

5. Accidental removal of vascular access is considered a hazard of transporting a patient.

- *a. True
- b. False